WASHINGTON, May 12 Pre-adent Truman early had the time of his life at his 65th birthday party — so much so that he stayed until 205 a, m and had Speaker Sam Rayburn grousing under his breath about keeping everybody up so late. For under official protocol, no guest even the speaker -- can leave until the president himself says goodbye to his hostess.

Mr. Truman enjoyed every minute of it — even inwiapping the birthday gifts. There were 70 presents, from the 70 supposed-iv "intimate" friends who gathered at the Larz Anderson mansion which saw some of the most famous social events of the early

To unwrap 70 birthday presents is quite a chore, especially in front of a big crowd of people. The president tackled it bravely, but was pleased when Vice Presdent Alben Barkley came to his

The vice president's running-fire comment on the president's presents resembled the patter of a magician pulling rabbits out of

"These won't do you much

Is Margaret Hope-Chesting?

Attorney General Tom Clark who is annual host to the president on his birthday proposed the chief toast of the evening in

"What do we care who be give em to," said Secretus of the em to," said Secretury of the Prensury John Snyder in a side remark to Under secretary of Deense Steve Barly.

Other guests, however started a pleasant buzz of speculation as whethe, Margaret was filling r "hope chest"

It was the vice president who paid Margaret the most fulsome

"One of the loveliest members of the Truman family has not been tonsted tonight" he began, and continued with flowers and southern chivalry, in one of those tributes which no one around the capital except Barkley can give

During the dinner, Frankie Govan went from table to table van went from table to table playing the accordion. For the vice president he played "Wagon Wheels" while Barkley sang. For the chief justice he played "My Old Kentucky Home," and at the request of Secretary of the Naxy Sullivan, he played "When Irish Eyes. Are. Smiling." Sullivan, Mayor William O'Dwyer of New York and Steve Early supplied an uncertain vocal accompaniment.

Sam Rayburn on Texas The speech of the evening came from Speaker Rayburn "Of course, us Texans," said Sam, "never talk much about ourselves. But there was a Bos-Antonio and saw an old building near the center of town

"What's that?" he asked

"That's the Alamo

"'What implened there'
"'Didn't you ever hear what happened there' That's where about thirty-odd l'exans hild off 10 000 Mexicans and before they were finished they had run out of ammunition and had to hold off 5,000 Mexicans with the butte of their guns'

of their guns'
" 'And what's that" asked the visitor from Boston, pointing atotice " Phat's a statue of the Pexar Ranger. Single-hunded he killed 163 outlaws, all armed with guns' guns'

"The Bostonian was silent for a minute Then be asked 'Did you ever bear of Paul Rovere''

"The Texan scritched his head, but finally replied 'Oh, yes he the man who went for help'"

The President Performs

AP Foreign Affairs Analyst Brittin's crown colony of Hong Kong off the southeast coust of China is only a pinpoint on the map of Aria, but it could become a mighty cause of strife between highered and the Chinese Commitments if the Reds conquer the country.

and China in 1839-41 Inductions are that the Chinese Communicity intend to reclaim Hong Kong and beighboring territory on the main-t and a total of more than 300

The London Duly Mail sums up
"the danger confronting Britain in Clura" like this
"The siege in the west is over, bor the shouting, but how soon will the sie te in the east begin? May Be Another Berlin 'Hong Kong may become anitter Berlin"

The Mail is doubtful if enough is being done to protect Hong Kong against possible aggression! and calls for joint Anglo-Ameri-

an action saving
"Hong Kong after all is a vital link in the American Parific from-tier stret hing from Japan to the Philippines x x x The Russians may have lost one found in the west but they hope to recover this ost ground through their allies in If we realize in time nat Honk Kong is the new political symbol of our resolve to resist

Red pressure, Russia may lose here as well? The Britain government already has taken steps to meet contin-gencies. Defence Minister Alexander told the House of Commons a few days ago that Butain was rending substantial land, sea and air reinforcements to Hong Kong This was during a debate on the Communist shelling last month of four British ships along the Yang-tze river at a cost of 42 British lives Alexander added:

Resolute In Attitude
"While we have scrupuously endeavored to avoid being involved in war on the Chinese mainland no less resolute in ou attitude as regards territory for which we hold a direct responsibility."

Hong Kong with is fine harbor, s one of the great centers of in-ernational trade. The colony conternational trade. The colony consists of three parts. There is the island of Hong Konk which has an area of 32 quare indexity of Victoria. Then there is the neighboring pennisula of Kowloon, a little more than three square inles in s.e., which was reded to Britain in 1860 after the Anglo-French was against China. Anglo-French war against China And there are the co-called new territories, containing 359 square infles, which China leased to Eng-land for 99 years in 1898

Britain Territory
Thus the territory actually be-longing to Britain consists of the island of Hong Kong and the Kowloon Peninsula Since the new territories are leased they presum ably will revert to China in 1998 (under normal circumstance) unless the leave is renewed Well, now, could Britain defend this possession of the Chinese Communists should make an at-

That certainly raises a great by question 1 long Kong is highly vidue able to attack from the mainland because its huge popul tion of something like 1,600,000 i largely dependent on the Hinter-land for food supplies It would be difficult to feed a besieged Hong Kong by sen and the operation could only be carried out under cover of big scale naval and air

In chort, it stakes us that deonce of Hong Kong against an all out Commanist attack would involve a major wir. That alkely would mean another world war. A declared along these lines may a what Butam will be up again.

Graham resorted to his old trick, rubbing his opponents eyes with a cigarette. But it wasn't until afte, he lost the first fall he was able to do this. The Phantom bounced off the ropes after 11 minutes and 44 seconds had passed and bounced Graham off his feet to win the first fall. The second ended in three minutes and 22 seconds after Graham had used his cigarette to blind The Phantom and then used a body smother. The third fall went to Graham after he had been bounced by the Prantom who used the ropes as a spring, but on the third bounce, Graham lifted his knee and caught the Phantom in the stomach knocking him almost "celd".
